Cycle. Life circle. Unit of measurement and change. Historical periodicity.

CYCLE is the name of the exhibition of Turkish contemporary fine art.

The cycle is also a genre in fine art.

The works of three completely different artists are included in the exhibition “CYCLE”.

Khalil Petuk combines classical aesthetics and freedom of street art style in his works.

Onur Mansiz layers beauty on beauty and creates the depth of astonishing images.

Mete Erdogan's unbearably beautiful and depressingly detailed reliefs draw the viewer into another... magical world.

What do these three authors have in common? Persistent search for harmony and attachment to real values. Cycles of personal and creative growth are unpredictable, but expected.

Why is cyclicity so important in our lives?

Spring is coming to us.

After spring comes summer, after summer comes autumn, after autumn comes winter.

The sun will rise and wake us up every morning, and the moon will intrigue or calm us at night.

And everyone with a soul will make a choice - whether to make their time of day good or not?

Gun aydin! / Good morning! (literally - let the day shine)

Iyi gunler! / Good afternoon! (literally – good days)

Iyi yaksamlar! / Good evening! (literally - good evenings)

Iyi geceler! / Good night! (literally - good night)

That's what they say in Turkey.

Let any time of day be good!

And may each new cycle be full of joy, kindness, beauty and art!
